

Serve Your Community. Join the Committee.

The Stafford Muslim Prayer Hall Committee exists to serve our community — running and maintaining the masjid, supporting our religious life, and ensuring our Prayer Hall continues to serve the Muslims of Stafford for generations to come.

We are at an important moment. We are renewing our committee and are looking for brothers from within our community who want to play an active and meaningful role in how the masjid is run. It is an opportunity to serve Allah (SWT), to give back to your community, and to be part of something that benefits every Muslim family in Stafford.

“The best of people are those who are most beneficial to people.”

— The Prophet ﷺ (Al-Mu'jam Al-Awsat)

- › Are aged 18 or over and willing to become a member of the committee
- › Are genuinely committed to serving the community and the masjid
- › Can give a few hours of your time each month to fulfil the responsibilities of the role
